TASTY AND ADDICTIVE

Brami comes in little veggie pouches and is lightly pickled in savory seasonings that you can enjoy whole or shelled. It's a fresh alternative to boring old dry processed snacks. Brami isn't dry like other snacks that often taste as appetizing as bland cardboard. Crafted from the seeds of the Lupine flower, it tastes as fresh and delicious as a bowl of just-picked vegetables. Brami is the snack you've been searching for, because it fills you up without weighing you down. It's lightly marinated, hearty texture and nutty taste is indescribably delicious. Most flavors contain just the right amount of heat to keep your taste buds excited without scorching your mouth.
