

SUBJECT LINE ONE: Ready to crack the code?

SUBJECT LINE TWO: Wanna live life at the highest levels?

SUBJECT LINE THREE: Tired of feeling tired?

Hey, FIRSTNAME, it's NAME from the Accelerated Method.

In 2003, a crew of bold-as-brass Belgian bandits nabbed jewels worth a whopping $100 mil. And they pulled it off even though:

→ a battery of infrared heat detectors

→ a powerful magnetic field able to detect intruders from thousands of feet away

→ and a top-notch security force

Stood in their way. One of the most formidable challenges they faced during the heist was a high-tech lock. It had 100,000,000 possible combinations—one for each dollar they stole.

Think of the skill required to crack a safe with that level of security!

To take in 100,000,000 calories, you'd have to drink 125,000 chocolate shakes. That's enough to quench the thirst of everyone in Topeka, Kansas.

Wanna be like those gutsy lock pickers?

I don't mean do something illegal. I mean being able to crack the code for living life at the highest levels.

The other day, I chatted with a dude who was totally wrecked from the 9-to-5 grind. He desperately wanted to muster up the energy to get off the couch so he could spend time with his family.

But he couldn't. No matter how hard he tried.

It's the same old story for too many guys. They down enough coffee to fuel a rocket. But no matter how much caffeine they ingest...

...they still have low energy levels due to out-of-whack metabolisms and unhealthy habits.

This is not only unsustainable but also takes a horrible toll on a person's health. If you want to want to flip the script on these habits, be willing to do one thing:

Scrap your old ways and try something new.

In it, you'll unlock the secrets of turbocharging your energy levels. Imagine feeling energetic enough to spend quality time with your family...
